The Magic Touch

6 0 1

Chapter 1 by Willow

Every day Mackenzie Rose was writing in her diary. She wrote in her diary everyday after school and everyday after soccer, track, and tennis. She loved her diary so much that she has been writing in it at 3 months old, and she is 10 now. She has her daily blog and her user is Write Me Mackenzie. She has 2,000 followers and 998 stories and they all have 611 pages. She even has a YouTube channel called Writers Blog Mack so shes a child genius and pretty famous , can her life get any better!

One day Mackenzie was riding her bike home from her tennis lesson. She crosses the street and her diary falls out of her backpack in the middle of the rode, no cars were coming she gets off her bike and puts the kick stand up and get her diary, but as she was getting on her bike a car comes zooming and hits Mackenzie and her diary was ruined. The car that hit Mackenzie kept driving and Mackenzie was hurt so bad that she couldn't even call for help, but one of the neighbors in the neighborhood knew her and called the ambulance and called her parents. She was rushed to the hospital and when her mom found her diary in the rode all the pages were blank. She was confused and was shocked. When Mackenzie was able to speak, her mom told her about the pages being blank and Mackenzie said" The last time I had it all the pages were wrote in so you have to be joking or something." Mackenzie's mom handed her the diary so Mackenzie could see that the pages were blank. When Mackenzie opened it non of the pages were blank but the ones she hasn't written in, so she closed it and handed it to her mom and said" Look for yourself mom all the pages are fine." When her mom opened it they were blank. She thought maybe she was just tired and seeing thing so she went to bed. The doctor had to do an operation on her arm.

Mackenzie's heart stopped because she had a magic that she had to
